

★ ★ ★
Juneteenth Colors of Freedom
In the North Country

June 17 - 9:00 AM starts at the Strand Theater in Plattsburgh and ends at the Elizabethtown Court House June 18 - 12:00 PM at the John Brown Farm

JOIN US on the "Colors of Freedom" tour to celebrate Juneteenth!

The event features seven different stops with re-enactors, docents, and celebrations of the freedom spirit in Clinton and Essex counties.

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
PLATTSBURGH
DIVISION OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION

It is generously sponsored by:
The North Star Underground Railroad Museum,
the Essex County Arts Council, John Brown Lives!, the Clinton County Historical Association, the Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at the State University of New York, Plattsburgh, and New York State Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation.

Admission: $10/person; $20/family pass:
northcountryundergroundrailroad.com/forms/web/colors-of-freedom-tour-registration-2023.php

New York State Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

JOIN US for an exclusive June 19th screening and Q&A of, "Songs of Slavery & Emancipation" with Director Mat Callahan at Lake Flower Landing in Saranac Lake as well!

For More Information, Scan
This For Our Website!

$5/person