Example of Constructive Resilience

#OurStoryIs One” campaign is marking the 40th anniversary of the execution of 10 Baha’i women in Shiraz, Iran. The campaign has dedicated this anniversary to all women in Iran, regardless of faith and background, who have contributed to the long struggle for gender equality. We take a look at the powerful message of this year-long campaign as a shared aspiration for essential values and principles, in particular the realization of equality of women and men and a common vision for a prosperous future.
