

Primo- Interlibrary loan quick tutorial

1. To borrow via Primo interlibrary loan you must be logged-in to Primo. If you see the yellow box asking you to log-in, click Sign-in and use your NetID credentials.

2. Once logged-in you can click the “Interlibrary loan” link to request your book.

3. Verify that the information on the auto-populated form is correct and click “Send request”.

A screenshot of the 'Resource Sharing Request' form. The form is titled 'Resource Sharing Request' and has a 'BACK' link. It contains several fields: a checkbox for 'almaResourceSharing.specificChapterPages', a 'Title' field with the text 'Diabetes /', an 'Author' field with 'Metcalf, Tom.', an 'Edition' field with '1st ed.', an 'ISBN' field with '9780737738711', a 'Publication year' field with '@2008.', an 'Email' field with 'pomar001@plattsburgh.edu', a 'Comment' field, and a 'Pickup location' dropdown menu with 'Feinberg Library' selected. At the bottom of the form is a green 'SEND REQUEST' button, which is circled in red. Below the form, there is a section 'GET IT FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS' with a dropdown arrow and the text 'Erie Community College'.

4. That's it! You will receive an email once your book has arrived.

Note: You will need your Plattsburgh ID to check out the book.
