

The Institute for Ethics in Public Life presents
A conversation with Stuart Brody, author of Humphrey and Me

Wednesday, Nov. 29 at noon

On Zoom or in person at the Institute (see below).

"In this heartfelt account of a crucial period in American history, an idealism that can sometimes seem lost today comes alive again."
—ANDREA BARRETT, National Book Award-winning author of Ship Fever

Humphrey and Me

HUMPHREY
He cares.

HUMPHREY
FOR PRESIDENT

AMERICA'S HOPE

A novel.

Stuart H. Brody

"Brody, who was inspired by his own relationship with Humphrey, packs the novel with significant historic details An important chapter in American history told with clarity and honesty."—Kirkus Review

On Sale September 19, 2023

The Impassioned Story of a Teen Who Has to Choose Between His Ethics and His Political Hero During the Tempestuous 1960s and 1970s

Order now wherever you buy books!

Stuart Brody is a Senior Scholar at the Institute for Ethics in Public Life, and is the author of The Law of Small Things: Creating a Habit of Integrity in a Culture of Mistrust.

You are welcome to join us in the Institute (Hawkins 233) or on Zoom (<https://plattsburgh.zoom.us/j/93249440155>).

The Institute for Ethics in Public Life is generously supported by gifts to the Plattsburgh College Foundation.