

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK PLATTSBURGH

MAY 3, 2024, 4:30-6:30 PM

EHHS STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Discovering and Exploring Our Shared Values in Education, Health, and Human Services

Call for Proposals

We welcome student presentation proposals from all EHHS disciplines and the School Psychology Department for this virtual student conference!

The EHHS Student Conference provides an opportunity for SUNY Plattsburgh students to develop an interdisciplinary understanding of our shared values within the Education, Health, and Human Services professions and approaches to align our work with these values.

Submit a proposal (title, 500 word abstract with learning outcomes) that relates to one of the three strands below by 5 pm on March 29 to this Google Form. Presentations of 10-minutes in length in a variety of formats (i.e., poster, Pecha Kucha, TEDTalk, oral presentation with slides) are welcome. See this document for proposal directions.

Presentation Strands

- Excellence in Teaching, Service, and Coaching
- Professionalism in Human Service Industries
- Inclusion and Culturally Responsiveness

Conference Organizers

Drs. Alison Puliatte, Emily Hoeh, Michelle Bonati, Yong Yu, Christopher Needham, and Maureen Squires