

The SUNY Plattsburgh Institute for Ethics in Public Life presents
“Masculinity in America”

Apr. 16 (W) at 3:30 in person or on Zoom (see below)

What does it mean to be a “man” in America? This is not an easy question to answer, and it has not gotten any easier in recent years as masculinity itself has become politicized. From Sec. of Def. Hegseth arguing that women shouldn’t be allowed to serve in combat roles in the military to Tucker Carlson claiming that we’re approaching the “end of men” to Fox News hosts recently arguing that Trump’s tariffs will make the economy more “manly”, masculinity is having a moment. What is going on, and why?

We welcome special guest Dr. Lee Thorpe, Department of Sociology, to help us understand this important topic. This forum is an opportunity for students, faculty, administrators, staff, alumni, and community members to come together and learn about this issue.

Join us in person in Hawkins 233 (the Institute offices) or on Zoom at <https://plattsburgh.zoom.us/j/85789244683>
