

Anthropology sponsored internships: Fall 2025

1. Miner Institute: Nine different internships in the following general areas: Social media campaign: Miner Farm Projects and Program; Marketing campaign: Educational Programs; Marketing campaign: Dairy Management Program; Marketing campaign: General; Oral History Project: Miner Farm employees and alumni; Historical/Archival Research; Data Management/Organization; Equine Program research: multiple possibilities; GIS Mapping/ Archaeology Project.

2. Archaeological/Historical/Pre-historical Research Internships. Multiple projects and openings. With Dr. Justin Lowry:

MesoAmerican Landscapes: Exploring Pre-Columbian travel, trade and exchange AND Exploring Historic/Ancient People of Northern New York.

3. Northstar Underground Railroad Museum: Multiple projects and openings.

Media and Community Outreach; Educational Materials Development; Archival and Historical Research Project.

4. The Alice T. Miner Museum. Multiple projects and openings:

Artifact Identification and Analysis; Gender and Women's Worlds during the 19th Century; Museum Collections Management.

5. Kent Delord House Museum. Multiple projects and openings:

Archival Research on the Kent DeLord House and Plattsburgh history; Media/Outreach and Networking; Cultural Analysis and Representation in a Museum.

6. Entrepreneurship internships: How to succeed in a small business in a small community. Two types of small businesses:

Entrepreneurship and the Business of Beauty: Beehive Beauty, Plattsburgh, NY. Successful business woman with over 3 decades of experience.

Health, Fitness and Entrepreneurship: JS Fit, Plattsburgh, NY. Successful Fitness Trainer shows how to succeed in this thriving but competitive industry.

7. Clinton County Historical Museum. Multiple projects and openings.

Artifact Identification and Analysis—determine the archaeological and cultural significance of materials in the collection; Cultural/Historical Research on 'Ghost Towns' of Clinton County; Lost Communities of the North Country—Research cultural groups that were once prominent or significant in the NC but are no longer here; Community Outreach and Event Planner—Share the love of history and archaeology with the broader community.

ALL are OPEN TO ALL

Please apply in Handshake <https://sunyplattsburgh.joinhandshake.com/>. Contact Kirstin Menoff (klagr002@plattsburgh.edu) for information on applying. Contact Dr. Amy Mountcastle (mountca@plattsburgh.edu) for information about the internships.