

A TALK BY

RUSSELL

Russell Lehmann

FROM DISABILITY
COMPLIANCE TO DISABILITY CONNECTION:

5 Ways to Accommodate and Understand

You asked, we listened. Russell Lehmann returns for Year Two!

Saturday, April 18th

2 pm

Glenn Giltz Auditorium

47 Beekman Street

Plattsburgh, NY

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Russell Lehmann is an award-winning and internationally recognized motivational speaker, poet, author, and activist. In this powerful workshop, Russell explores five practical, unconventional strategies that move from surface-level awareness to genuine connection and empowerment for autistic and neurodiverse individuals. Through storytelling and honest dialogue, participants will learn how to create flexible, person-centered environments rooted in empathy, collaboration, and respect.

REGISTER HERE

LOMANTO
PROVOST
FINANCIAL ADVISORS

BOIRE BENNER GROUP

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
PLATTSBURGH
Center for Neurobehavioral Health, Autism Intervention Programs
School of Arts and Sciences • Psychology Department
Alumni Association • College Auxiliary Services