Fall Symposium: Call for Research and Creative Works

Date: Wednesday, December 2, 12:00–3:00 pm

Location: Warren Ballroom & Cardinal Lounge, Angell College Center

What: A showcase of student work from across campus. Undergraduate and graduate students in every discipline are invited to present research, creative projects, or both.

Students can present a poster, give a 15-minute or 5-minute talk (in person or pre-recorded), or arrange a special exhibit or performance of creative work. Every presenter gets an entry in the symposium booklet.

To take part, submit an abstract or work description of up to 250 words by Monday, November 16 using the following form:
https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc8Bn8FOObSEXP02Rjmfs-Ss_lQO8sIYlWe3QGczXVV1ScgFQ/viewform

Know a student who should present? Please pass this along and encourage them to submit.

Questions: Dr. Alyssa Gleichsner, aglei002@plattsburgh.edu

DR. ALYSSA GLEICHSNER

She/Her/Hers
Chair, Biological Sciences Department
Associate Professor, SUNY Plattsburgh
Center for Teaching Excellence Advisory Board
Hudson 323
101 Broad Street
Plattsburgh, NY 12901
Office: 518-564-5271