Election Day, Tuesday, November 3, 2026*, is a floating holiday so offices remain open and employees who work will receive compensatory time off. UUP Professionals will use this floating holiday for the Friday following Thanksgiving and as such are to report to work.

Veterans' Day, Wednesday, November 11, 2026, is a legal holiday.

Wednesday, November 25, 2026 and Friday, November 27, 2026*, the day before and after the Thanksgiving holiday, November 26, 2026, have been designated as Liberal Leave days. There are no classes on these days. The university is encouraging colleagues to use annual or other appropriate leave at this time. Offices and/or departments with specific work commitments may be required to carry out normal work schedules on this day. Any questions should be directed to your supervisor.

Under the Liberal Leave policy, staying out of work is voluntary. If you choose to work, in most cases, you should be able to work in your normal workplace. However, you are encouraged to discuss your plans with your supervisor as soon as possible.

See the Holiday Information and Liberal Leave Schedule for additional information.
*UUP Professionals will observe the day after Thanksgiving as a floating holiday in lieu of the observance of Election Day, in accordance with Article XIII, Title D of the Policies of the Board of Trustees. Leave credits should be charged by UUP Professionals and 12-month faculty who choose not to work on the liberal leave days listed above.
