

The SUNY Plattsburgh Institute for Ethics in Public Life presents
“The Complexity of Black History”

Feb. 18 (W) at 3:30 in person or on Zoom (see below)

As we observe Black History Month, it is worth reminding ourselves of the reality of Black History. While Black History has been shaped by powerful forces such as slavery, the Civil War, Jim Crow, the Civil Rights Movement, and Black Lives Matter it should not, and cannot, be reduced to a simple story of oppression and the struggle for justice. Instead, within those larger narratives lies a lot of complexity and nuance which we will explore through stories from the family history and life of our Interim VP of DEI, Pastor David M. Fryson, Esq.

We welcome special guest Pastor David M. Fryson, Esq., the Interim VP of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, to help us understand this important topic. This forum is an opportunity for students, faculty, administrators, staff, alumni, and community members to come together and learn about this issue.

Join us in person in Hawkins 233 (the Institute offices) or on Zoom at <https://plattsburgh.zoom.us/j/81423272121>
