

The SUNY Plattsburgh Institute for Ethics in Public Life presents
“War with Iran”

Mar. 11 (W) at 3:30 in person or on Zoom (see below)

The US and Israel are at war with Iran, but why? What are our goals, and how likely is it that we’ll achieve them? How is this war likely to progress, and eventually end?

There are a lot of questions worth asking about this war, what with its abrupt start and the shifting rationales for war offered by administration officials.

Institute Director Dr. Daniel Lake will draw upon his expertise on international relations, war, American foreign policy, and the US military to provide preliminary answers to these questions and others, and then moderate a discussion on these issues and others raised by those attending.

This presentation and forum is an opportunity for students, faculty, administrators, staff, alumni, and community members to come together and learn about this issue.

Join us in person in Hawkins 233 (the Institute offices) or on Zoom at <https://plattsburgh.zoom.us/j/86468537391>
